

ANSWERING THE “UNANSWERABLE”

How do you respond to the difficult questions adopted children ask? What do you say when you don't know the answer? How do you tell the truth about painful or difficult birth family histories? How much information do you give?

There are many questions that adopted children ask for which there may not be any answers. Come join the discussion about the ways in which we respond to these questions.

ALL ADOPTIVE AND PRE-ADOPTIVE FAMILIES ARE WELCOME!
